MEMBERS PRESENT: Mayor Victor Snover; Mayor Pro-Tem Fry; Commissioner Austin Randall; Commissioner Sherri Sipe; Commissioner, Mark Lewis

MEMBERS ABSENT: None

OTHERS PRESENT: Interim City Manager Steve Mueller; Utilities Director Delain George; Project Manager, Ed Kotyk; City Clerk Karla Sayler

A. Curbside Recycling Discussion

Mayor Snover opened the workshop for curbside recycling discussion. Interim City Manager Steve Mueller introduced Ron Poor the representative for Transit Waste and explained that they have asked them to present numbers for us on costs for recycling services. Utilities Director Delain George presented commission with handouts for the workshop.

Delain explained the papers that she handed out in the packet.

- A comparison of other cities was presented
- Farmington is the only one in the tri-cities that recycle
- When the RFP was done 2 years ago the initial charge was $3.69 per month to the customers to get the cart which is in addition to the current poly cart charge plus the charge that is being charged for the current dumpster
- The company will have to purchase of a recycle truck and 2500 carts
- Asked for weekly, bi-weekly and a monthly cost
- Residential would be including 4-plex units
- If we do curb side will we still keep the current recycle center open
- The other utility rate increases will include: electric and trash in July and Water Waste Water will be in October
- The last survey for recycling was done in 2010 with 324 responses and it was asked if we want to do another survey

Mayor Snover asked if we did the recycling can we alternate weeks recycling one week and trash one week. He mentioned that we definitely have a need for recycling in this area. It's a culture shift and will take time for citizens to participate. He mentioned that recycling is a basic service in most states.

Mayor Pro-Tem Fry mentioned that she would like to see specific numbers and different options on monthly or bi-weekly pickups because she thinks it could be a very close amount.
