X. COMMISSIONER, CITY MANAGER, DEPARTMENT REPORTS

Assistant Interim City Manager Steven Saavedra mentioned the month of May will be busy with budget and they would like to have a budget workshop on May 18th. This will allow us to have it on the agenda for the 25th meeting for approval and submit it to the State by May 31st. The Comprehensive Plan has been finalized and the consultants would like to have a public meeting on June 3rd hopefully will be able to have outside.

Commissioner Randall mentioned that he has LTAB on May 17th and he's not sure about the next Library Board meeting. He mentioned that the paving looks awesome and the crew is really efficient and he hopes that Main Street goes that smoothly. He thanked the State for getting that done it looks and drives nice.

Commissioner Lewis mentioned that he attended the painted piano concert on Sunday at Soaps on Main and it was really nice, the people who put that together did a great job. Urged everyone to be very cautious with the very dry conditions that we have right now.

Commissioner Padilla mentioned that he had attended EDAB and the COG meetings. The Cog is really pumped and up on the recreation. He received a call today about the Vietnam Moving Wall which will be on display in September in Farmington and they would like an escort through Aztec so he gave them Chief Heals contact number.

Mayor Pro-Tem Fry mentioned she attended the EDAB, MPO, NWNM Seniors and Chamber meetings. The Chamber is working on getting built back up. The Painted Pianos will have a concert event on July 17th. The Community Garden land is not going to happen right now, but they are still working on finding a new location.

Mayor Snover mentioned that he has an ECHO board meeting tomorrow and urged everyone to continue to vigilant with the COVID safe practices because we are still in this.
