A. Red Apple Transit Discussion

Mayor Padilla opened the workshop for discussion on the review of Red Apple Transit and turned it over to City Manager Jeff Blackburn Jeff presented Commission with a packet overviewing the Red Apple Transit program The Commission had some questions that they would like answered on the following items,

- Ridership
- Cost increase
- Daily number of routes
- Miles incurred
- Program funding sources (State/Federal funding)

The Commission directed the City Manager to ask for clarification from the City of Farmington on what the solid numbers on the items discuss or if they need to submit an IPRA request to obtain them They would like to know what the total budget for the program costs are and would like to possibly have another workshop when those numbers are received
